Masterpiece Jewels of Fernando & Humberto Campana by Fabio Salini

Delightful mix of brown diamonds, rose gold, Brazilian straw and bamboo

To Catch a Thief cuff in bamboo, gold and diamonds

Unique jewels, in limited edition of eight, signed by designer duo Fernando & Humberto Campana and realized by jeweler Fabio Salini.

A very special and unusual collection that is called 'Dangerous Luxury' and is very closed to what I think can be mentioned as masterpiece jewelry. This incredible collection goes toward the new boundaries of High End jewelry that is now moving around a new meaning and a new concept of luxury jewels.

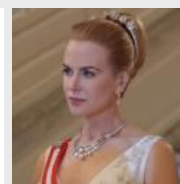

The discretion and silence that lead High Jewelry toward this new field speak loud in terms of a visual approach. Chandelier-like earrings, necklaces and bracelets in rose gold, brown diamonds, straw and bamboo are the perfect examples of what I say.

Brazilian Capim Dourado straw and bamboo linked together with precious metal and diamonds, has been possible thanks to a special joint technique that merges such different materials. A jewelry collection which is the highest expression of a today 'dangerous luxury', synonymous of unusual binomials, made of audacious aesthetic languages always in charge of redefining a new, appealing and artistic côté of jewels.
